

so, act now:

December 4th, 2009

To realize means to create:

So I was dreaming

I was trying to save you from a bad-life the kind that haunts my sleep at night but no good-life I can provide you

-but you're not the one who waits awake, you try and you succeeded and I am proud of you but what you have is not always the one you want so at the end of the day > when you go to fall asleep when it comes down to something you can count on

I don't think there's anything at all

(I am the dark)

I tried the best that I had to try for nothing can give back to me the million tons of chemicals that my brain had to make those pathways I wired but if they change and I forget

I am the only one who knows how hard it's to be don't hesitate to stop and change your course the world will not wait your time, made with the most, of what you got it could be great a little bit of this and that and spark it up roll it out parade again and over and you'll be there and you'll be afraid and we will always be there and the feeling will subdue you from the ashes we will rise up and take our place for the rest of time usher in the new age paradigm it won't be there if we wait, so, act now!
