

2-28-11

February 28, 2011

who wants children who longs for that explanation who knew one and who knew another language you lay down what is like my life for me who are intimate with another who are intimate with that after wedding smell that fume TO GET IN TO OR OUT OF THE BUSINESS take someone up on their offer

I just want to kiss your lips both small round parts- a breath of fresh air because there is terror you inspire me because there is like a candle in a dark night one single chance to see something new because yes I've been waiting to experience to change To prove my self and others wrong because I forgot this then because I forgot this then and then you.
you are one in a deck of cards I want to go away with you I want you to feel absolutely safe with me don't tell but
